Dear Registered Professional Forester:

RE: ABCFP Professional Liability, Commercial General Liability, and Property Insurance Programs

Thank you for your interest in our Insurance Programs. Please find an Errors & Omissions application form attached for the Association of British Columbia of Forest Professionals Professional Liability Program. We have also included an Application Addendum in respect of the Commercial General Liability Program, which may be of interest as it is prudent business practice, and often a contractual requirement to carry this coverage. We are also able to offer property insurance coverage in addition to the Professional and Commercial General Liability insurance, an application is enclosed for your completion. Property insurance is available with limits of $10,000, $25,000 and $50,000, provided you have professional liability insurance in place.

ENCON made many improvements to the ABCFP Insurance Program effective May 1, 2008. We have enclosed a document which lists many of these enhancements.

We would like to emphasize that Professional Liability Insurance provides coverage for you and your firm, only for services usual and customary to the practice of a Registered Professional Forester or Registered Forest Technologist. The by-laws and/or regulations established by your Association would set out what falls within these parameters. If you have other professionals working within your firm please contact our office for more information about some alternative coverage options.

With respect to Commercial General Liability (CGL) insurance, it is available only in conjunction with Professional Liability Insurance. It provides coverage for you and your firm, only for services usual and customary to a professional consultant. This Program is not designed for individuals or companies requiring Products and Completed Operations coverage, or that are contractually responsible for, or actually perform: construction, installation, maintenance, repairs, service, actual performance of labour, hands-on work or work of a physical nature, or the supervision thereof, or who manufacturer, distribute or sell any products. Please be advised that as a result, this CGL policy does not comply with the Ministry of Transportation Certificate of Insurance requirements.

2008 Policy Changes

- Two-Year Policy - Policies will be renewed on a two-year policy term, with annual billing. This means that you only complete one application for the two year period, rather than completing a new application each year. In time for the May 1, 2009 anniversary date, you will receive an invoice for the second half of your premium, rather than a new application to complete.
- Premium Reduction - Premiums have been reduced by approximately 15% from the rates for 2007-2008.
- Defence Costs - Defence costs are now in addition to the policy limit. Previously defence costs were included in the limit of coverage. The policy limit shown will be applied to court awards, claim settlements, or other claim costs rather than being used up by defence or legal costs.
- Penal Defence Reimbursement - On the Professional Liability policy, Penal Defence Reimbursement has been increased from $50,000 to $100,000.
- Disciplinary Action - Legal Expense Coverage - On the Professional Liability policy, Legal Expense Coverage has been increased from $10,000 to $25,000.
- Retirement/Death/Disability/Cessation of Business Endorsement - Professional Liability Coverage will extend under the policy to cover work done while the insured had insurance in place, provided operations have ceased entirely. If operations should start again, the endorsement is no longer applicable.
- New Commercial General Liability Endorsements
 - Endorsement SEF 94 adds coverage for damage to hired automobiles up to a limit of $50,000.
 - Endorsement SEF 96 adds coverage for liability arising out of the use of hired or leased automobiles for business related use up to $1,000,000, not to exceed 30 days, and use in Canada and the US only.
- Third Party Forest Fire Fighting Expense - $1,000,000 Forest Fire Fighting Expense is now included on all Commercial General Liability policies issued on the group program. Previously $175 was charged for this coverage extension.
- Property Insurance - Property Insurance is now available for limits of $10,000, $25,000, or $50,000. See the enclosed application and rating sheet.

 These are brief descriptions of coverage only. **
Coverage is always subject to the terms and conditions of the policies in force.

Why professional liability insurance?

Issues arising from professional liability are of great concern today. There was a time when the professional (or quasi-professional) was not a target for lawsuits; clients would never have considered bringing an action against a professional, not even in instances where negligence or errors were obvious.

Times have changed. Today, the public and our legal system expect more and are much more inclined to initiate a lawsuit. When adjudicating cases, the courts have based their judgements on an increasingly higher standard of care and responsibility. The ever-increasing levels of education, training, experience and reputation of professionals have led the courts and the public to expect service which is superior than the average person.

This higher accountability can be overwhelming and even frightening for professionals. To think that one is responsible for every action he or she does or fails to do, and that any error, however innocent, could bring severe or negative consequences, is quite unnerving.

Why have public attitudes changed towards the professionals? There are a number of causal factors. Part of the answer is that the public has become more informed of its legal and contractual rights, and, rightly or wrongly, has been led to believe that a legal action may be initiated from any turn of events that was not an expected outcome by the client.

In addition, the media has brought to public attention the litigious climate of our modern society. Many legal actions have been sensationalized in the press. Lawyers have become much more aggressive in the demands for compensation, seeking ever larger and more extensive settlements.

Another reason why public attitudes have changed is because the relationships professionals have had with their clients have evolved. Traditionally, the connection between the professional and the client was much more personalized than it is today. In the past, clients' trust and confidence in the professional was absolute. Our changing society and financial constraints felt by many clients have heightened their awareness and increased the professional's accountability to the client.

Professional liability insurance is one form of protection for professionals and for their clients. Coverage will shield personal assets and will help maintain a good reputation through the defence of allegations of wrongdoing which might be frivolous or false. For the client who has suffered some damages through the actions of a professional, liability insurance will ensure that there are adequate funds available to make amends for the wrong that has been done.

A professional liability policy covers errors, omissions or negligent acts which may arise from the normal or usual duties carried out by the insured.

When the professional is an employee of a firm, the firm, as the employer, is responsible for the actions of the employee. However, a court of law may find a professional personally responsible for an incident that occurred due to an error, omission or negligent act committed by the professional as an individual. To date, we know of no such situation ever occurring, however, it is our opinion that given the behaviour of the courts in recent times, one may be made personally accountable.

In another scenario, the employed professional may offer a professional opinion or "moonlight" professional services on his or her own time. In this case, the professional would be personally responsible for any consequence of these actions. The policy of the employer may not provide coverage for the liability exposures of the moonlighter.

Should the limits of the employer's insurance be insufficient to meet the settlement of a claim in which the professional was co-defendant, then personal assets of the professional could be at risk. The difference in limits between the employer's insurance policy and the professional's policy is available to cover any shortfalls in these instances. A professional liability policy offers the insured peace of mind by knowing that he or she has independent coverage and by knowing what limits of that coverage are available.

ENCON is highly specialized in the area of professional liability and offers a variety of errors and omissions coverages. The coverages and premiums offered by ENCON are developed according to the specific requirements of each individual risk.

When claims do occur, the professional's decision to have obtained professional liability coverage will remove the financial consequence of a legal action and provide him or her with a solid, reputable insurer upon whom he or she may rely in full confidence.
